GAINS ONE IN KENT

Results of the Recount in All But One Precinct.

THE EIGHT PLAINFIELD VOTES

Are as Yet Uncounted-Without Then Beiknap Gains One-Ionia Still Uncounted-District Results.

The Kent county recount committee completed its labors less evening, with the exception of one predict in the Twefth ward. The result gives Mr. Bellinsp a net gain of one in the county, though Mr. Richardson claims the eight uncounted Plainfield votes, which would give him a net gain in the county of seven. The results in the entire district, if unchanged by the Ionia recount, would new give Mr. Belknap a plurality of six, leaving out the eight Plainfield votes. If the latter were counted Mr. Richardson would have a plurality of two.

The original count in Ionia gave Bel-knap a piurality of 276. Ionia, so far as recounted, gives Richardson a gain as recounted, gives Richardson a gain of twelve, cutting Belknap's plurality to 264, which, added to Belknap's plurality of 128 in Ottawa, gives him a total plurality of 392.

Richardson's piurality in Kent county was originally 387, which is cut down one by the recount, not counting the eight Plainfield votes, but is increased by seven allowing the Plainfield votes to be counted. As it now stands (omitting the eight Plainfield votes), Richardson has 386 plurality in Kent, which subtracted from Belknap's 392 in the other two counties, gives Belknap six in the district. By including the eight Plainfield votes Richardson gets two in the district. It Richardson gets two in the district. It will be several days before the Ionia recount is completed as the committee adjourned to allow the supervisors to do other official work. They have counted thus far only eight precincts u of their twenty. The detailed result of the recount in Kent county is h re ein given:

BEER COMBINES OUTLOOK.

What the Amaigamated Brewers Propose to Do.

The brewers' combine is now fully organized and has elected officers as follows: President, Charles F. Kusterer; vice president, Jacob Veit; secretary and treasurer, F. A. Tusch. Mr. Kus-terer, as president, has general charge of affairs and will probably be formally of affairs and will probably be formally installed as general manager. Mr. Kusterer cordustly received a reporter for THE HERALD yesterday and gave the following information:

For the present the capacity of the Kusterer brewery will be increased to 50,000 barrels per annum, and that of the Tusch brewery to 25,000 barrels. The other breweries will close entirely; excepting, of course, Weirichs and Freys, which will do business independently. The Kusterer brewery pendently. The Kusterer brewery buildings are ample for the increased capacity, the only radical changes to be made being in the vat storage and cooperage. It made numerous extensions about two years ago, including putting in its ice-making plant. The new output will require brewing twice instead of once a day. The Tuech brewery

Mr. Kusterer and that the intention is to build a big brewery eventually, but that no ground has been purchased yet; that the present plants are now all owned by the combine as part of its capital stock, and that they will all be sold sooner or later. The brewers are weary of fighting each other, and will now work logether to retain the Grand Rapids trade. They expect the increased trade will employ more hands and intend to patronize home industries in the way of new wagons, signs, co-perage, etc. They hope to successfully oppose the inroads of outside companies.

TO REPORT AN AMENDMENT.

Improving the River. Charles R. Sligh and M. S. Crosby were present at the meeting of the charter amendment committee last night. Mr. Sligh stated that the board of trade wished to have the charter amended so as to allow the people to vote on a proposition to bond the dity for some amount to be used toward improving the river. He made the same statements used before the board of directors of the board of trade one week ago. He had received a proposition from a contractor in the south, who agreed to do the dredging for 6 cents per yard. As Colonei Ludiow's report was based on 10 cents per yard, it was easy to see that $150,000 would go a long way toward making a tenfoot channel.

The matter was discussed in all its charter amendment committee last

The matter was discussed in all its bearing, and on motion of Alderman Conger, it was decided to recommend to the council that the legislature be the people to vote next spring on a proposition to bond the city for not to exceed $150,000 to be used in improv-

Recently the authorities discovered evidence that she had lived with one or two men since the death of the late lamented Mr. Brown, and that she has had several children since his death. She has assumed the names of the various men with whom she has lived and ous men with whom she has lived and has said she was married to them. She was given a hearing before Commissioner McQuewan and was held for trial at the next term of court.

City News in Brief. City News in Brief.

According to the Kalamazoo Telegraph the following society people from this city will attend the assembly to be given in that city by Mrs. F. N. Rowley and Miss Kent, this evening: Mesera Zach Knapp, C. M. Beckwith, H. G. Northrop, H. A. Knott, John T. Wheeler, Leo P. H. Fisher, Fred B. Clark, Fred Deane, Percy Storra, Claude Hoteford and James Campbell; also, the Missee Quimby, Moore, Calkins, Eaton and Thompson, chaperones, Mesdames Clark, Morley and Campbell.

Manager Wheeler of the alabastine works at Paris, Ont., and formerly of this city, distinguished himself last Saturday by rescuing two boys from a deep mill race. They had broken through the ice and Mr. Wheeler, stopping only to remove his coat, plunged into the cold water and succeeded, by tremendons efforts, in landing both.

RODE ON THE CAMEL

Nobles Of the Mystic Shrine Journeyed Last Evening

HOT SAND AND A HIGH TIME

From Abroad Were There.

The Shriners were in it yesterday. They tramped through the sands of the desert, rode the camel, and filled themselves full of the good things of fife. Eighteen novitiates were conse-crated at the shrine. Eighteen newly fledged Nobles went to bed with blistered heels, caused by too intimate contact with the hot sands of the Saladin Sahara. Prigrims came from all parts of the state, and the camel was an overworked beast when he went to bed. The Shriners began business shortly after dinner yesterday. They quit just before breakfast this morning. There is no eight hour law in force in their ritual.

The Officers Elected. At last night's session the following officers were elected: Potentate, Lou B. Winsor of Reed City; chief rabban, H. K. Dean of Grand Rapids; assistant chief rabban, Ed L. Bowring of Grand Rapids; high priest, Nate A. Steddard of Reed City; oriental guide, N. H. Reynolds of Grand Rapids; recorder, C. E. Fink of Grand Rapids; treasurer, T. S. Freeman of Grand Rapids.

At the Basquet.

At midnight a basquet was served in the Morton. The tables extended parallel the entire length of the dining room. At the head of the parallel tables was a cross table, at which the officers were seated. The tables were resplendent with chrysanthemums, roces and smilax. Wax tapers in silver candelbra were scattered about, the soft light of the tapers blending in perfect harmony with the table decorations. George L. Buss acted as toastmaster, and 150 nobles sat at the board. The camel was not there. He can go seven days without drinking; so he was ruled out. Toasts were responded to by Judge E. S. B. Sutton of Saulte Ste. Marie; Potentate Lou B. Winsor of Reed City; Judge Champlin and George Thompson of this city and A. J. Peake of Jackson. The menu was dainty and elaborate and was hugely enjoyed.

SILENCE IS GOLDEN.

That Is the Present Opinion of C. & W. M. Officials.

Officials of the C. & W. M. road were not talking yesterday concerning the rumored deal with the Lake Erie & Western. Superintendent Agnew was Western. Superintendent Agnew was engaged in private business all day, and General Manager Heald left orders with one of the understudies in his office that he had nothing to give to reporters. The clerk volunteered the information that Mr. Heald considered the report too absurd to be denied. When informed that the pub denied. When informed that the public didn't, the young man softly intimated that the public wasn't in it, and got himself other where. Speaking of the rumor, a well known railroad man said: "There is nothing absurd in the rumor that a deal is in progress. It may not be true; but it certainly looks suspicious. If it were any other time of year, it would be different; but General Manager Bradbury of the Lake Erie does not travel around for his health this weather, and when he packs his little gripsack and around for his health this weather, and when he packs his little gripsack and starts out there is liable to be something in it. It is possible, of course, that the visit is for the purpose of making new traffic arrangements, but railroad men who are making traffic railroad men who are making traffic arrangements usually do not find it necessary to inspect all the branches of the road visited. If the report is not true, the officials of the C. & W. M. should deny it. If it is true, it will make 'mighty interestin' readin' when the details are known."

SUED A SECRET ORDER. Mrs. Groenwald Wants Her Husband's Life Insurance.

Wilhelmina Groenwald, the widow of Jacob Groenwald, who committed suicide in the jail last summer, began suit in the superior court yesterday afternoon against Grover Cleveland tent No. 171, K. O. T. M., and the Great Camp of Michigan to have the life insurance policy of her husband, to be paid to her instead of to Mr. Groenpaid to her instead of to Mr. Groen-wald's daughter.

Mrs. Groen wald alleges that her husband was insane, and that while deranged he became jesious of her and had his life insurance policy of $1,000 made payable to his daughter by a former wife. The daughter now resides in Germany. Mrs. Groenwald states that at first the policy was made payable to her; that she had always been a good and faithful wife to him, and that the cause of his jesiousy was a hallucination of his mind. A divorce proceeding brought by Mrs. Groenwald was discontinued after Groenwald's death.

Considerable Litigation the Con testants Decide to Quit.

The case of John Powers against Dr. E. R. Jackson was discontinued in Judge Groves' court yesterday morning. The case is an old one and was somewhat peculiar. Dr. Jackson contracted to do a certain amount of dental work for Mr. Powers at a certain price. A portion of the work was done, for which the doctor received his pay. The last work done was to fit a set of false teeth. The set was completed and ready to deliver, but Mr. Jackson refused to deliver the teeth until he had the balance of his pay. Mr. Powers refused to pay until he had received his teeth, and so they went to law about it. They have both expend-Judge Groves' court yesterday morn-
